Personal Care

Personal Care

Dignity shouldn't fade with age or illness. Elroi Homecare offers respectful, hands-on personal care that helps adults and seniors live safely, comfortably, and confidently in their own homes.

Supporting Independence With Compassion

Everyday tasks like bathing, grooming, or dressing can become challenging due to age, illness, or injury. Our caregivers step in gently and respectfully, helping you or your loved one feel safe, comfortable, and confident at home so you can focus on truly enjoying each day.

Our Personal Care Services Include:

Bathing and grooming assistance

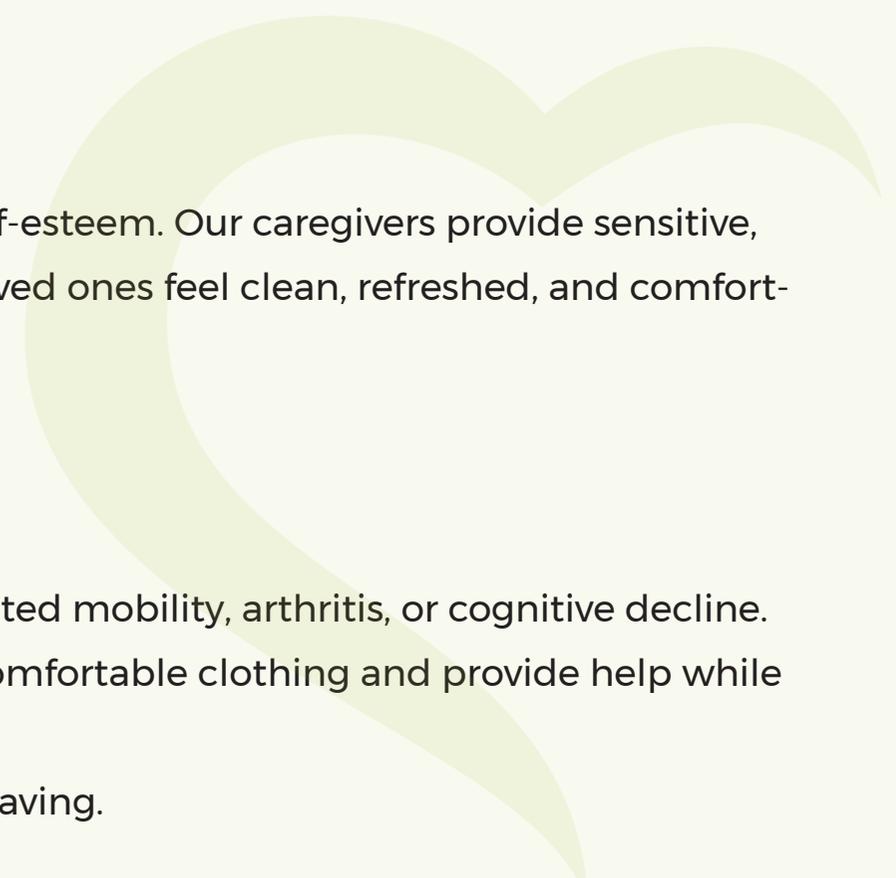

Maintaining proper hygiene is important for both health and self-esteem. Our caregivers provide sensitive, respectful support with bathing and grooming, ensuring your loved ones feel clean, refreshed, and comfortable.

We create a calm, safe environment where dignity comes first.

Dressing and hygiene support

Getting dressed can sometimes become challenging due to limited mobility, arthritis, or cognitive decline. Elroi professional caregivers assist with choosing appropriate, comfortable clothing and provide help while maintaining a sense of independence and routine.

We also support habits like brushing teeth, applying lotion, or shaving.

Toileting and incontinence care

We understand that personal needs require privacy, patience, and compassion. Our caregivers are trained to provide discreet and professional toileting assistance, including incontinence support. We help maintain cleanliness and comfort while preventing skin irritation or infections.

Meal preparation and feeding help

Proper nutrition is vital to well-being, especially for seniors or those with health conditions. Our caregivers prepare balanced, home style meals based on dietary needs and preferences.

We ensure your loved ones stay nourished, hydrated, and enjoy their meals in a relaxed setting.

Mobility and fall prevention assistance

Falls are one of the leading causes of injury for seniors. Our caregivers provide hands-on support with walking, transferring from bed to chair, or using assistive devices like walkers or canes.

We help minimize fall risks and encourage safe movement throughout the home giving both clients and families peace of mind.

Medication reminders

Missing medications or taking them incorrectly can lead to serious health issues. While we do not administer medication, El roi caregivers ensure clients take their prescriptions on schedule by offering gentle, timely reminders and helping manage pill organizers or routine charts.

Monitoring health routines

Consistency in care routines supports better health outcomes. Our caregivers help track daily patterns like sleep, appetite, hydration, and activity levels. They also observe changes in behavior or condition and communicate them to families or healthcare providers ensuring immediate attention when needed..

Companion Care

Companion Care That Keeps You Connected, and Comfortable

Over the years, you have shaped your home to fit your life. The daily routine and the quiet joy of familiar surroundings. But as time passes, even simple tasks can start to feel overwhelming.

With our companion care services, we aim to lighten that load providing not just help with everyday activities, but meaningful companionship that nurtures your independence, boosts your well-being, and keeps you engaged with the world around you.

Comfort, Connection, and Conversation

Sometimes, the greatest gift we can give is simply being there. Our Companion Care services offer friendly companionship, thoughtful conversations, and genuine emotional support that brighten your loved one's day. We're here to help with daily routines, encourage favorite hobbies, and share meaningful moments, making home a comforting place filled with warmth and joy.

Support That Feels Like Family

We're not just here to help with the chores. We're here to make life more joyful, more connected, and more fulfilling. Our companion caregivers provide more than assistance; they bring warmth, dignity, and a sense of companionship into every visit.

Our Companion Care Service Includes

Social Interaction and Companionship

Meaningful and human connection are essential at any age especially for seniors who may live alone or feel isolated. El roi caregivers offer more than presence, we build real relationships, we listen with attention, and make every interaction respectful.

Emotional Support

We are aware aging, illness, or life transitions can bring emotional challenges like anxiety, grief, or loneliness. Our companion care givers are trained to organize emotional shifts and provide calm, reassuring complete support. We are here to help, uplift, encourage, and create a comforting presence for you.

Recreational Activities (Games, Walks, Hobbies)

Staying engaged physically and mentally plays a critical role in long term wellness. We encourage participation in hobbies, board games, card activities, light gardening, or even walks in the neighborhood based on what the client enjoys. We greatly improve your mood, memory, and confidence.

Assistance With Errands and Outings

Our caregivers help clients stay connected to their daily routines and community life. Be it a post office trip, or pharmacy pick-up, we provide safe transportation and friendly support throughout the outing. This keeps seniors active and preserves a sense of autonomy.

Appointment Reminders and Organization

Managing schedules, medications, and medical appointments can become overwhelming. Our companion care includes gentle, timely reminders and help organizing calendars or notes. This ensures that nothing important gets missed and families stay updated.

Safety Monitoring and Supervision

Even in non-medical care, safety is a top priority for us. We keep a watchful eye to prevent falls, respond to signs of disorientation, or intervene during mild emergencies. We offer reassurance through presence and awareness

24 Hours Care Service

Trust and Comfort Around the Clock Home Care In Boston, MA

Choosing 24-hour care for someone you love is a big step and one that involves deep trust. We recognize how important this decision is, and we honor your trust with compassionate, attentive care at every hour of the day and night.

Our dedicated caregivers provide continuous support, safety, and companionship, ensuring your loved one feels secure, comfortable, and genuinely cared for around the clock.

Regardless of whether your loved one is living with dementia recovering after surgery, or needs continuous assistance, our caregivers bring warmth, reliability, and gentle support tailored specifically to their needs.

What Is 24-Hours Care?

24-hour care means your loved one is never alone. Our trained caregivers are always there, day and night, ready to help whenever needed.

It is ideal for those who:

- Need help overnight (toileting, medication reminders, mobility)
- Are at risk of falls, confusion, or wandering due to memory loss
- Have recently returned home from a hospital stay or rehabilitation
- Require continuous supervision or personal care(Insert link to personal care page) throughout the day

With EL ROI Home Care, your loved one receives consistent, caring support right at home, ensuring comfort and safety around the clock.

Our 24-Hour Care Services Include:

Continuous, Round-the-Clock Supervision

Our 24-hour care provides vigilant, around-the-clock supervision to ensure your loved one is never alone or unattended. During the day or in the middle of the night, our trained caregivers are always alert, ready to respond, provide peace of mind for families, and safety for clients.

Overnight Monitoring and Safety

Nighttime can bring unique risks, especially for those with memory loss, mobility issues, or post-surgical needs. Our caregivers remain on-site overnight to provide supervision, reduce fall risks, assist with toileting, and offer comfort during restless periods—ensuring uninterrupted, safe sleep for both the client and their family.

Immediate Assistance and Support

In emergencies or unexpected situations, every second counts. With El Roi 24-hour care, there's no delay. Whether it's sudden discomfort, a fall, or help needed getting out of bed, our caregivers are there providing immediate, compassionate assistance at any hour.

Personalized Care Plans Tailored to Complex Needs

Every client's condition is unique, and so is their care. Our team works closely with families and medical professionals to create detailed care plans that address chronic conditions, cognitive impairments, and physical limitations.

Consistent Daily Routine Management

Routine brings comfort, especially for seniors dealing with dementia anxiety, or physical dependency. Our caregivers maintain a structured, familiar daily rhythm from morning hygiene and meals to evening wind-downs.

Frequently Asked Questions On Round the Clock 24 Hours Care

1. What exactly does "24-hour care" mean?

24-hour care means your loved one receives continuous care day and night, with caregivers working in shifts. There's always someone awake, alert, and ready to help at any hour.

2. Is 24-hour care only for medical needs?

Not necessarily. While 24-hour care often supports individuals with medical needs, it's also ideal for anyone needing continuous companionship, supervision for dementia, mobility help, or support after hospitalization.

3. Will my loved one always have the same caregivers?

We aim to maintain consistency as much as possible. Typically, a small team of familiar caregivers rotate shifts to provide consistent, personalized, and comfortable care.

4. Can I adjust or change the schedule if our needs evolve?

Absolutely. If your loved one's situation or care needs change, we're always flexible. Adjustments to your care plan or schedule can easily be arranged.

Dementia and Alzheimer's Care in Boston, MA

“When Memory fades, We See the person You Love”

Caring for a loved one with dementia or Alzheimer's can feel overwhelming and deeply emotional. We understand how heartbreaking it is to see someone you cherish begin to lose treasured memories or struggle with daily routines. You're not alone. We see you, we hear you, and we're here for you every step of the way. Our caregivers look beyond the condition to see the person, offering warmth, patience, empathy, and gentle support tailored to your loved one's unique story and needs. Every day, we strive to create moments of joy, comfort, and genuine connection

Our Dementia and Alzheimer Service Include

1. Specialized Memory Care and Cognitive Stimulation

We provide thoughtful memory care that goes beyond the basics. Our trained caregivers use gentle cues and stimulating activities to help your loved one stay engaged, feel valued, and live with dignity each day

2. Structured Daily Routines

Consistency can be comforting. We build daily routines that feel familiar, reduce confusion, and give each day a sense of purpose, helping your loved one feel calmer and in control.

3. Safety and Wandering Prevention

Peace of mind starts with safety. We carefully design each care plan to prevent wandering and reduce falls, so your loved one can stay secure in surroundings that feel like home.

4. Emotional Support and Anxiety Management

Living with memory loss can be frustrating and scary. We're here to help ease those feelings. Our caregivers know how to comfort, redirect, and support emotional well-being with patience and compassion.

5. Family Education and Communication Support

6. Activities to Support Cognitive Function

Every day brings a new opportunity to connect. We incorporate music, puzzles, conversation, reminiscence therapy, and more to gently encourage mental stimulation and meaningful moments.

Frequently Asked Questions On Dementia and Alzheimer's Care

1. What's the difference between dementia and Alzheimer's?

Dementia is a broad term for symptoms like memory loss, confusion, and trouble with daily activities. Alzheimer's is a specific disease and the most common type of dementia. Think of dementia as a general category, and Alzheimer's as one specific cause.

2. Is dementia or Alzheimer's hereditary?

Most cases are not directly inherited. However, family history can increase risk, especially with early-onset Alzheimer's, which is rare. If you have concerns about family history, it's helpful to discuss this with a health-care provider.

3. Can dementia or Alzheimer's be treated?

While there's no cure yet, there are treatments that can significantly help. Medications, specialized care, therapies, and structured routines can slow progression, ease symptoms, and greatly improve quality of life especially if started early.

4. How can home care help someone with dementia or Alzheimer's?

Home care provides comforting familiarity, which is very important for someone living with dementia. Trained caregivers assist with daily routines, safety supervision, and provide meaningful activities designed to gently engage memory and ease anxiety. It helps your loved one feel secure at home and gives you peace of mind.

EL ROI Home Care Services Earns Prestigious Accreditation from the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts

Boston, MA – EL ROI Home Care Services is delighted to announce our recent accreditation by the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts. This respected achievement positions EL ROI among a select group of home care providers recognized for meeting and exceeding rigorous quality standards in caregiving, ethical business practices, and caregiver excellence.

The Home Care Alliance Accreditation Program, created in 2010, sets high standards designed to promote quality, trust, and accountability within Massachusetts' home care industry. To achieve accreditation, agencies must demonstrate thorough compliance with detailed requirements in caregiver training, client safety protocols, business transparency, and service quality.

"We're deeply honored by this recognition," said Abi Bamgbose, Director of EL ROI Home Care Services. "For us, it's more than an accreditation—it's validation of the compassion, professionalism, and genuine care our team brings into every home. Families deserve care they can trust, and we're proud to offer services that consistently meet and exceed the highest standards."

Jake Krilovich, Executive Director of the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts, emphasizes the value accreditation brings to families seeking care: "Choosing home care is a deeply personal decision. Accreditation signals that an agency follows best practices, prioritizing reliability, quality, and transparency. Families deserve that reassurance, and agencies like EL ROI exemplify the commitment to excellence we strive for."

EL ROI Home Care Services remains committed to providing compassionate, personalized care, ensuring clients can safely and comfortably enjoy living in their own homes

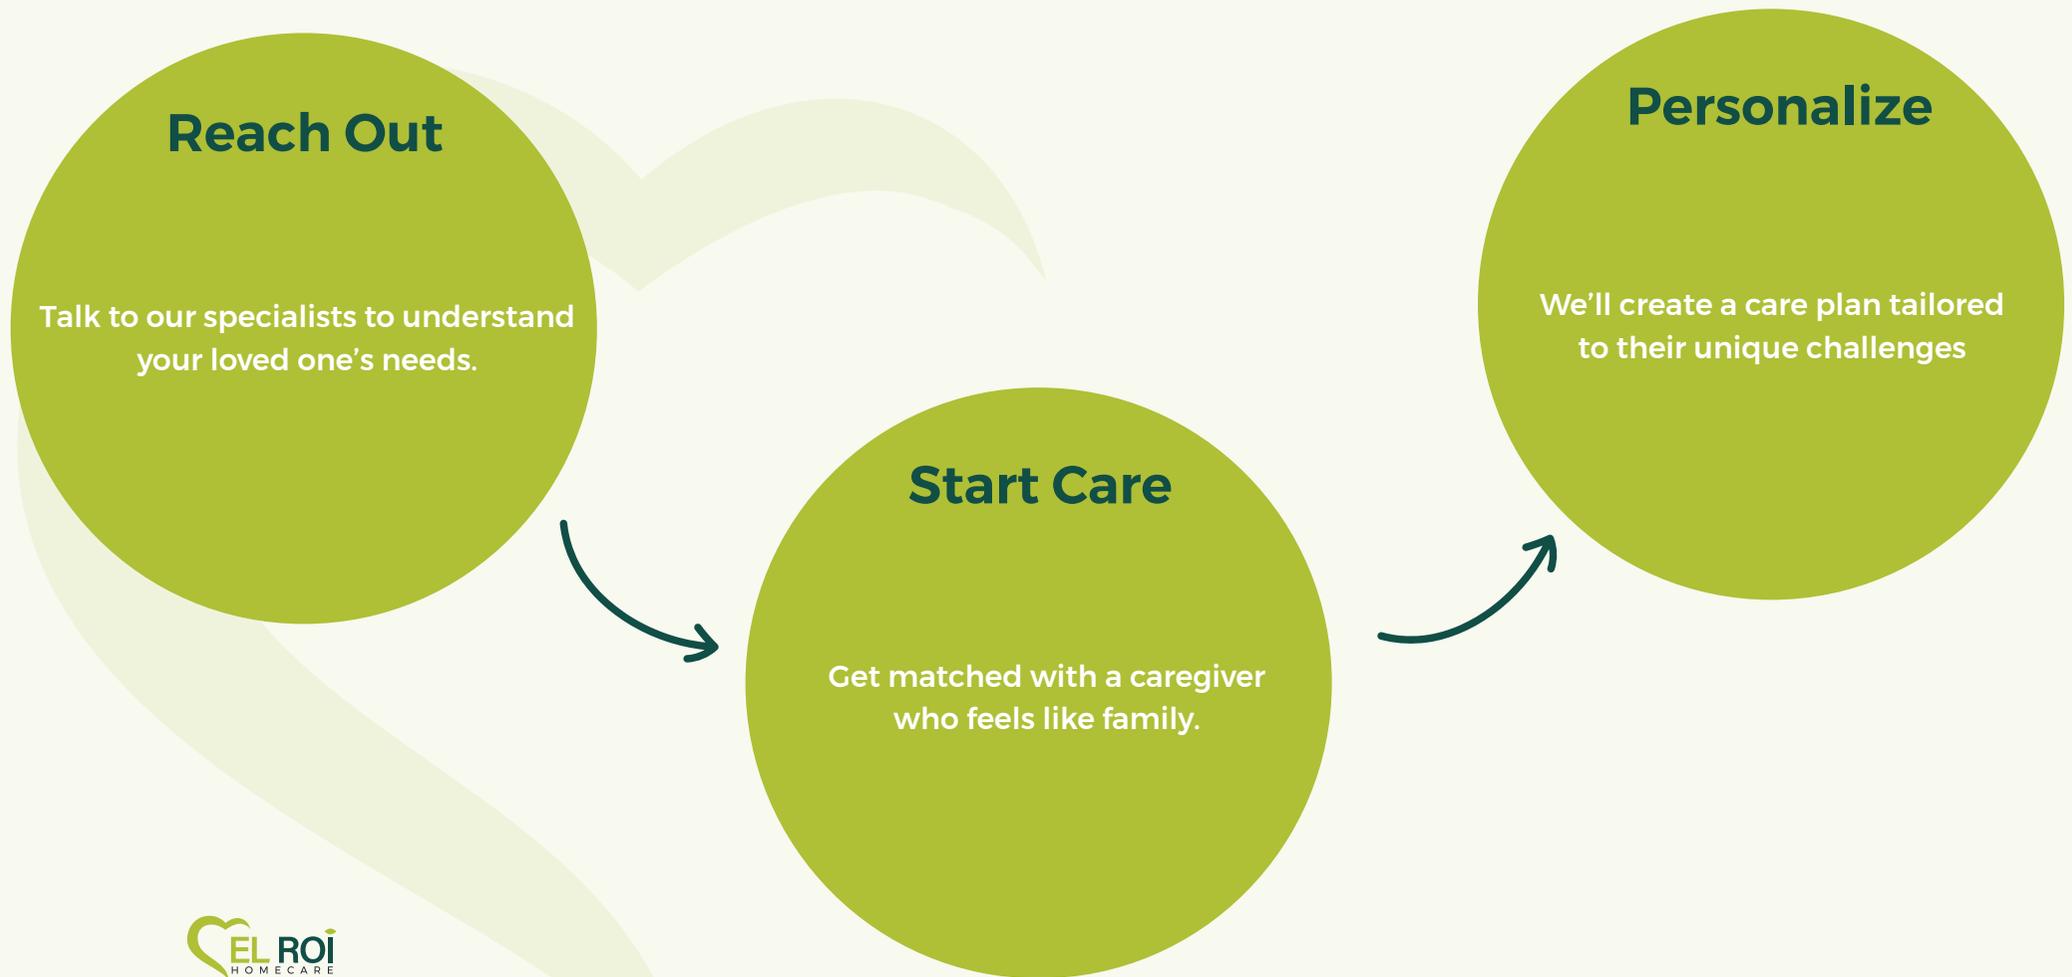

About the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts:

Founded in 1969, the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts represents more than 170 home health and elder care agencies statewide. The Alliance is a non-profit organization advocating for excellence in home care, providing education, representation, and leadership in community health and caregiving services.
